BURIED

Beneath the Collapsed Walls.

Three Hundred Government Clerks Crushed.

The Walls of the Pension Building Collapsed Suddenly.

Over a Hundred Persons Killed Outright.

And as Many More Badly Injured—An Aerial Disaster in Washington This Morning.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—(Special.)—10:00 o'clock—This morning about 9:40 the first floor of the old Post Office, in which President Lincoln was assassinated, and which has been used by Pension Department, gave way, the other floors caving in upon it, leaving nothing except the bare side walls.

There were over three hundred clerks in the building and half of them are buried beneath the debris.

Every ambulance in the city is at the scene, and the greatest excitement prevails. A regiment from the regular army is at the scene keeping the streets clear.

AWFUL

THE DISASTER ONE OF THE WORST EVER EXPERIENCED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—(Special.)—Over four hundred clerks were in the building, and scarcely one escaped without more or less injury. Emergency hospitals are crowded with the dead and injured. The accident is of the severest character the country has ever experienced. Not a person in the building escaped injury, crushed and broken limbs prevailing among the injured.

The first floor

was the first to collapse, through weakness caused by new excavation in basement.

One of the workmen, a colored man employed doing excavating, and who escaped with slight injury, says:

"I told them yesterday the archway would fall, for over time any one walked over the floor it would bend. There were twenty men at work with me. Don't know what became of them."

Every hospital in the city has been called into requisition to care for the wounded.

Fall of first floor carried down other three floors and with them the inmates.

THE DEAD

BEING TAKEN OUT BY POLICE AND FIREMEN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—(Special.)—The dead and wounded are being taken out rapidly by firemen and police.

All ambulances in the city have been summoned, and the rescued are being conveyed to the hospitals as fast as they are taken out.

It is feared that hundreds of people have been killed.

BODIES BURIED

from the third floor were crushed on the pavements beneath.

Walls are still standing, but every floor is down and all the windows blown out.

The building has been condemned as unsafe and unsuitable for the purpose for which it was occupied, for some time, but sentiment kept it unchanged. The floors were heavily loaded with records of the pension divisions and war departments, all of which were destroyed.

EIGHTY BODIES

STILL UNDER THE RUBB—AN OHIO MAN KILLED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—(Special.)—Gen. Schofield has ordered out all naval and medical officers stationed here, also ordered the navy yard to receive the injured and the navy yard has been ordered to render all assistance in their power.

A LARGE NUMBER

of the injured have been removed. It is feared there are still eighty bodies under the ruins.

At 10:15 o'clock another man was just taken out dead.

Howard S. Miller, of Ohio, clerk in the pension bureau, and an unknown man, were killed, and have just been brought to the Emergency hospital.

THE INJURED.

LIST OF THE VICTIMS AT EMERGENCY HOSPITAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—(Special.)—Partial list of the injured at Emergency hospital is as follows:

Fred Calver, Charles McCall, S. D. Dewey, W. M. Decker, F. N. Foster, Kongler, Pennington Ames, Charles R. Miller, G. F. Hattaway, B. M. Patrick, J. A. Stewart, F. F. Sims, Louis Desany, G. N. McLaughlin, Howard S. Miller.

The remains of another young man not yet identified, just been taken to morgue at Emergency hospital.

This makes the number ascertained deaths up to present time, eleven; but every minute delay in removing those buried under the ruins increases probability of fatal results.

It is believed there is fully sixty clerks still in the ruins.

EXCAVATIONS

WIDENED THE SUPPORTS AND THE FLOORS FELL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—(Special.)—Most heroic efforts are being made by the firemen and police to reach the buried men.

The cavalry has gone to the scene to clear the streets.

There were about four hundred and twenty-five clerks employed in the building, which was acquired and preserved by the Government a few years ago because of its historical associations.

The most remarkable

STATEMENT WAS MADE

this morning to the effect that Gen. Ainsworth, chief of the division, stated to a Congressional Committee last year that the building was perfectly safe.

Connected accounts as to the cause of the accident, now partially obtainable. Excavations, which were the immediate cause of the collapse, were being made at the instance of the war department, for the purpose of putting in an electric light plant.

A RUMBLING NOISE

GAVE THE WARNING OF THE COMING COLLAPSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—(Special.)—As already stated the insecurity of the building had been repeatedly reported for a long time past. Whenever a heavily loaded wagon passed, the building seemed to sway backward and forward.

When the first rumbling warning of the approaching collapse came, clerks on the third floor to the number of one hundred and jumped to the roof of a small building on the northwestern side.

Many escaped this way. M. Arnold, colored clerk from Virginia, seen at third story window, was warned not to jump, but

A Wronged Husband Recovers His Child.

By Apprehending It's Erring Mother, Who Kidnapped It.

Joseph Cracker lives at 818 Ash street, Toledo, and works for the Edwards Frohlich Glass Factory. His wife eloped on the first day of April with a glass blower by the name of Steve Zellers. They have been living at Hartford City, Ind., since then and on last Monday she returned to Toledo and kidnapped their six-year-old boy.

Mr. Cracker bought a ticket this morning for Hartford City, with the intention of getting his boy. He arrived here on the C. & D. at 9:25 and took the L. & E. train, which was standing at the depot. As he was walking through the train he and child occupying a seat in the ladies coach. He went out on the platform and the little fellow reached his arms to him through the open window.

The father grabbed his child and drew him through the window. Just then the train pulled out.

The woman is Cracker's second wife, she being 20 years of age, while he is 40. He has a daughter by his first wife who is fifteen years old and is keeping house for him. He declared that he would return to Hartford later and make it interesting for his wife by having her arrested for adultery. They have been married ten years.

Cracker and the boy returned to Toledo on the 1:15 o'clock train this afternoon.
